A Dallas Tradition Since 1912

Celebrating 102 YEARS Since 1912

A Dallas Tradition Since 1912

Highland Park Pharmacy was founded in 1912 by H.S. Forman. After running the business for more than 8 years, Mr. Forman sold Highland Park Pharmacy to four of his employees who owned and operated the store until 1973.

In 1973, Mr. Thell Bowlin purchased and owned Highland Park Pharmacy for another 33 years until July of 2006. He maintained the service and quality of its previous owners.

Highland Park Pharmacy and Old Fashioned Soda Fountain was then sold to Gretchen and Sonny Williams, life-long Dallas residents, in July of 2006. They have not forgotten its heritage and promised to uphold the legacy of quality food, great customer service, and friendly employees.

Thank you for your past, present, and future patronage.
